

Husky Contributes $1 million to Flood Relief Efforts

Calgary, Alberta (June 24, 2013) – Husky Energy is donating $1 million to help with flood response and relief efforts in southern Alberta.

“We have witnessed the devastating impact of flooding, but also the resilience of those impacted and the dedication of first responders,” said CEO Asim Ghosh. “Recovery will be a long process, with many lending a helping hand. We are pleased to join that effort.”

To assist with immediate relief efforts, $250,000 will be directed to the Canadian Red Cross. Husky is consulting with community partners and local officials on how to direct the $750,000 balance for maximum community impact.

Husky Energy is one of Canada's largest integrated energy companies. It is headquartered in Calgary, Alberta, Canada and is publicly traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol HSE and HSE.PR.A. More information is available at www.huskyenergy.com
